

For tribes, for nature,
for all humanity

Survival International USA Internship

Survival International has fought for tribal and indigenous peoples for 50 years. Through our advocacy campaigns, we help them defend their lives, protect their lands and determine their own futures. We stop loggers, miners, and oil companies from destroying tribal lands, lives and livelihoods. We lobby governments to recognize indigenous land rights. We document and expose atrocities and take direct action to stop them.

Survival International's Oakland California office is looking for a dedicated intern to join us, that believes in our work, has experience to share and is able to dedicate 2-3 days a week.

While our internships are unpaid, in return for your contributions, we hope you will gain:

- Insight into the functions of an international NGO
- Familiarity with Survival International campaigns
- Knowledge of indigenous and tribal peoples' rights
- Opportunities to create and attend Bay Area outreach events
- Technical experience relevant to your professional goals

Survival International US Intern responsibilities:

- 60% Outreach and Communications:
  - o Targeted group research
    - Identifying and contacting organizations, student groups, and individuals for outreach
  - o Young people engagement strategy
    - Identifying platforms and media outlets for engagement
    - Recommending approaches/ways to engage different populations
  - o Outreach
    - Communicating with identified target groups
      - Sharing Survival International's work via email, phone, in person etc.
- 40% Development:
  - o Foundation database and grant research
    - Collecting and compiling information on relevant foundations and grants
    - Aiding with grant drafting process
  - o Supporter services coordination
    - New donor engagement
      - Creating and sending welcome and thank you letters/emails
  - o Donations
    - Salesforce management
      - Processing donations
      - Filing donations