

For Indigenous peoples,
for nature,
for all humanity

Interactive Map Guide

To add your voice to the campaign and map: Tell us what the history of the Mayflower means to you.

Background

This growing map on our website features the responses of Indigenous people to the question “What does the history of the Mayflower mean to you?”

Visit the map: <https://www.survivalinternational.org/campaigns/mayflowerskill>

Activity

Have learners scroll around the map, clicking on responses to hear and learn from Indigenous perspectives on the “Mayflower”, and answer the following questions:

- What did you learn from the map?
- What are some themes you came across in Indigenous responses to the history of the Mayflower?
- How do these responses make you feel?
- Why are the map and responses important?

Note: If you or your learners are Indigenous, please consider submitting a response to share your voice with the campaign!
